

Fairfield Independent Hospital

Person Specification

Post: Theatre Practitioner

Attributes	Essential	Desirable	Method of Assessment
Education	ODP Level 3 NVQ Or Diploma/Degree in Operating Department Practice	Mentorship/Teaching Qualification Advanced Life Support training ECDL	Interview Professional Portfolio
Skills/Ability/Knowledge	Ability to work in stressful situations Evidence of continuing development Ability to deliver high standards of care Knowledge of Health and Social Care/Governance issues Up-to date skills in 2 of the 3 specialist areas in theatre (anaesthetics, scrub and recovery)	Willing to learn new skills and push boundaries of existing knowledge Adopt extended role within theatre Knowledge of key areas concerning CQC inspection Understanding of the audit process	Interview Professional Portfolio

Experience	Experience across a broad range of surgical specialities	Previous Theatre Practitioner experience	Interview Professional Portfolio
Other Requirements	Good team member Excellent interpersonal skills Demonstrates a professional attitude at all times Ability to work in multidisciplinary teams Effective communicator	Flexibility Enthusiasm	Interview